Pretty Wedding at Paia.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, Maui, Jan. 17.—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Carley in Paia last Saturday at 2 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Addie Augusta Carley was united in marriage to Charles P. L. Ladin, who is in charge of the electrical department of the Maui Agricultural Company's mill. The bride and groom stood under the pretty bower built in the parlor of the Carley home. The other decorations were beautiful. Only the intimate friends of the young couple were present. Pretty little Miss Carley was flower girl, and the father gave the bride away. Dr. Louis A. Sahey played the wedding march. The ring ceremony was used by the officiating minister, Rev. A. Craig Bowdish, pastor of the Paia church, who was assisted by Rev. Rowland P. Dodge of Wailuku. After the ceremony the couple went to Wailuku for a short honeymoon. They will reside at the Carley home in Paia. Delicious refreshments were served the guests after the ceremony. The Misses Fernandez served.

Shiel-McEldowney Engagement.

Announcement was made in Spokane, Wash., on Jan. 2 of the engagement of Miss Alice Shiel, a very well-known and popular girl of that city, and Mr. George A. McEldowney of this city. Recent papers from Spokane bring news of a number of affairs given in honor of the young couple. Miss Shiel is prominent in northwest society. Mr. McEldowney has made his home here for more than a year. He is a brother of R. K. McEldowney.
